To Sam and children !There are no words to ease the pain you are feeling on the loss of one you love. She will always be with you in spirit and in your hearts!. It is many years since I have seen any of you but I do remember the times I spent with You Sam & Sylvia.She was always upbeat , caring . I feel very sad and hope she is at peace . I lost my husband and can feel the pain you are going thru! Just remember the wonderful times and how much she loved you all. May you find comfort in this !Shirley Greenberg Fuchs and Sons David & Alan Greenberg

My darling Mother, you gave me so much to be thankful for. You shared your happy and positive spirit with all who knew you but for me, you are my heart and soul. These last few weeks were so difficult to see you suffering but you did it with such grace and dignity. You were the best mom to the end, trying to shield us from the pain. I don't know how I can live up to such strength and courage but I have to try and make my mother proud. I love you forever and ever and ever.....

My dear sister; how you will be missed. I'll treasure many memories of happy days. One most vivid and representative of our good times was our week at the Raleigh - how we laughed as you regaled us with your stories, and how you guided us through the maze of ordering at a Catskill hotel. Rest in peace, my dear friend. Goodi
