Benjamin Rappaport

AUG 25, 1926 - NOV 4, 2017

Benjamin Rappaport (8/25/1926-11/4/2017) On November 4th, 2017, Benjamin Rappaport passed away unexpectedly.

He is survived by: his wife, Beverly; his three daughters, two grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Benjamin was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, uncle, brother and friend. He had the ability to light up the room with his fun-loving and bright personality. It was impossible to be sad when he was around to make you cry of laughter.

He was also very gentle and kind-hearted; he always went out of his way to make sure his family and friends were happy. He will be dearly missed by all who were blessed enough to know him. Rest in peace, Ben.

Grandpa, I miss you more than words can ever describe. I can never thank you enough for all the things you've done for me through out my life. I'll never forget when you'd pick me up from school everyday when I was younger. You always made sure I had "expense" money to go home with. You were even there for me whenever my car broke down. I'll never forget our drives to New York or sitting on your terrace talking about our lives. You were even the first person I remember to call me Dani before I made it my forever nickname. You are truly my hero, my guardian angel and I know you'll always be watching over me. I love you to the moon and back, forever and always.

When I married your niece you became my uncle also. Lucky me. Great to be around. A caring person With a great sense of humor. Enjoyed listening to your opinions About politics or life in general. I remember those days in Canarsie and the great group of friends you had. You loved your Saturday nights out on the town. Rest In Peace uncle Ben Rick Bain
