It is with great sadness that the family of Marc Marchand announces his passing after a prolonged illness on Tuesday, November 21, 2017 at the age of 45.

Marc will be lovingly remembered by his fiancé, Shannon Ryan and Marc's three step children Kayla, Jasmine, and Jacoby. Marc will also be fondly remembered by his sister, Danny Loubeau and her daughter, Vana and infant son, Blake and his brother, Steve Loubeau, as well as many aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and many dear friends.

Marc is predeceased by his mother Marie Loubeau (Vancol) and father Jean Loubeau.

Marc was born in the Bahamas and later moved to South Florida at the age of 2. Marc attended College in California and later, proudly served in the United States Army for 4 years. After honorable discharge from the U.S. Army, Marc moved back to South Florida where he began his 18-year career at American Express.

Marc was a loving and dedicated family-man who enjoyed spending time with his fiancé, kids, and life-long friends. Anyone who knew him, also knows how dedicated he was to his 3 dogs. Marc was also a great sports enthusiast, and loved coaching and supporting Jacoby in basketball and football; Marc was always on the sidelines and never missed a practice or game.
