Harriet was a sweet heart. She was friends with my dad when both were in St Josephs' Residence Assisted Living over in Lauderdale Lakes. My dad passed in Jan 2016 and Harriet was transferred out afterwards. I stop by to visit some of the residents who I became friends with when I'm down visiting my brother and I always asked if they heard anything about Harriet but they never did. She was smart and funny and always wanted me to contact the TV News and find a lawyer for her about how she got ripped of on a hearing aid or something, lol. Funny today my cell's address book accidentally opened up to her entry and I said let me and google Harriet and see what's up - never nice to let a loved one go but I'm sure that fire crackers doing fine, lol. Lotts love Johnny T. Sollitto
