Phil hired me at Stuart Weitzman in the Florida office. Phil was a great boss and a friend. I do have this picture from a video of a holiday party at which Stuart gave Phil a well-deserved recognition. Steve Sielemann

Our companies in the USA and Spain worked with Phil for many years. Over 2 decades to be exact and we were very sad at the news of his passing. Phil was a man of integrity, fairness, professionalism but more importantly of great kindness. He always made us feel like we were a part of his team. His hard work didn't go unnoticed and he was highly respected. He will be greatly missed by all of us. We extend our heartfelt sympathy during this very difficult time to the entire family and loved ones. May God's blessings descend upon you and provide you peace. In Friendship, Barbara Hiebendahl & the teams from Euro Cargo Express

My hisband and I were married on Paula's balcony in her residence at Renanissance in Dania in 2007. We enjoyed our celebration with Phil, Paula and two other of our best friends. We shared a few New Years Eve's with Phil and Paula, dancing the night away, as well as other dinners and fun times. He was funny, fun to be with and a great and generous guy. I'm so so very sorry, we will miss him along with many others. My thoughts are with his family, Paula, (my sister) and his freinds at this time of sorrow.

I never met Philip. I know my mother used to say " He is so wonderful to his Mother". He must have been a sweet person. This breaks my heart. He was way too young.

Phil my baby brother,Where do I begin to speak about you. My heart aches so badly and I know you would not want it this way. You were the brother everyone should have. Always so caring and always willing to help those in need. I know you are smiling down on us and telling me to be strong. Life goes on but how do I do it without you in it.That day before you passed I was able to tell you I loved you and am so very thankful for that.I loved you yesterday, today and forever in my heart. Till we meet again,Your loving and adoring sister, Marcy
