Sylvio Brutal

JUL 26, 1969 - JUN 25, 2021

Sylvio Brutal was born on July 26, 1969 in the country of Haiti. He later moved to the United States and lived in the city of New York. The peace that we receive as a family comes from Sylvio accepting Christ as his Lord and Savior right before he passed. He then later moved to Miami where he was able to create a life for his family and himself. He worked hard to take care of the ones he loved around him always. He impacted many lives. He was very influential. His personality was very unique. A loving and caring man. Besides being around his good family and friends He enjoyed the game of soccer. His favorite soccer team was Brazil. Unfortunately, June 25, 2021, he passed away.

His memories will forever live on through His wife Nirva Brutal, his son Bradley Brutal, and beautiful daughters Sarah, Sabrina, and Dorothy Brutal. Along with extended families and friends that are affected by this loss. Sylvio was preceded in death by many of his siblings, parents and lifelong friends to help welcome him to his true home with open arms.
