Leonard Bierman

SEP 28, 1932 - JUN 29, 2022

It is with sadness we announce the passing of Lenny Bierman, born 9/28/1932 in New Jersey, he passed on June 29, 2022.

Lenny served in the United States Army Rangers and attended the University of Miami where he played varsity football. Upon graduating from high school, he signed a professional baseball contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates and later after college a professional football contract with the Dallas Texans.

His career spanned several decades as a forensic credibility analyst (polygraph examiner) determining truth or fiction in major crimes. Along with his partner he owned Graymark Security Company in Miami, Florida for many years then went on his own operating under Leonard Bierman & Associates.

He married Marsha Terry in 1967. Together they spent many years fishing for marlin and conducting standup fishing seminars around the globe.
