Sheldon Lawrence Goldstein

OCT 17, 1929 - MAR 5, 2023

The life of a WWII and Korean War U.S. Marine veteran as well as a Miami Beach Police Officer retired really never ends...His many stories live on in all of us that were so fortunate to know him.

His love and his pride for his country was only surpassed by his love for his family. He was married for 70 years to Sylvia (deceased), the loving father to Andrea Goldstein (deceased) and Judy and John Francis.

He was the brother his many siblings found love, strength and support from and the uncle to his many nieces and nephews that looked up to him with so much love and respect and admiration, so well deserved. As he said, he dodged a lot of bombs and bullets in his life but he couldn't dodge getting older.

Rest in peace eternally now... A chapel service will be held on March 8, 2023 at 12:00 p.m. at Beth David Memorial Gardens, 3201 N. 72nd Ave., Hollywood, FL 33024

Melissa Kotrba sent a virtual gift in honor of Sheldon.

My heartfelt condolences. I can remember visiting when I was small and the magical coins he pulled from behind my ears. When we were taking some family photos I asked how we get the pictures from the camera. He told me that when the camera takes the picture it is magically sent through the air to the photo shop. The last time I saw Uncle Sheldon I was visiting Miami when I was 14 and he had been involved in busting a counterfeit clothing ring. He had cases upon cases of counterfeit clothing and allowed me to pick out what I wanted. I remember the trademarks were all off a little bit like the playboy bunny had a mouth. As a teen I was very proud of my cop family members. I was told that he was a consultant for the show Miami Vice. I don't know if that's true, but it was cool to think that and brag to my friends. They say as long as someone is remembered they live forever. I hope to read more memories. Melissa Kotrba
