Paul Kornfield son of Harry & Pearl Kornfield from Brooklyn, New York born on August 16th, 1946. Paul resided in their home with his wife, son Marc and daughter-in-law Beth of Port Saint Lucie, Florida passed away on August 8th, 2023 at 3:40am with Marc and Beth in the hospital at his bed side. He spent nearly 4 decades of his career with Satco Products, Inc. He was a dedicated family man, the jokester around the family table especially during the Jewish holidays. Paul and his wife Ellen loved traveling and visiting new places. They have flown and cruised around the world together as well as with their lifetime friends and family.

Paul is a tall, blue eyed, full head with salt and pepper hair, very handsome man and knew how to dress in his own stylish clothes, and recently before he passed, he was given his first pair of stylish Crocs to wear.

He was a coach for his children's sport teams, band parent while Marc was in high school and playmate with his grandchildren, nephew Josh and family.

Dad, it has been 43 hours since Beth & I said we would see you soon! It has been on of the hardest things I have ever done. You have taught me to be strong, and I am trying to. But please, keep an eye on me and Beth while you are up in the skies about us. Give our family and Caleb a BIG HUG from us and a BIGGGGGG GIANT Hug to yourself from ME! I LOVE YOU DADDY!!!!
