Beatrice Levy

APR 5, 1929 - MAY 25, 2024

Beatrice Levy was loved by many. She was born Beatriz Rodriguez. She was as sweet as she can be.

She is now with her parents, sisters, husband and son. Leaving behind her son, Charles, daughter-in-law, Debra, grandchildren, Justin, Max and Madison and her great-grandchildren Jack, Jett and Henry. As she was an animal lover, she would include DJ, Penelope, Marty and Miller.

She worked as a full-time mom and a librarian at Kean College. Beatrice's life did not come without struggle coming from Cuba, Panama, and the United States. Proud patriot she was.

Bea lost her husband and son early in life which weighed heavy on her but the love of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren filled her heart with joy. She found warmth in the Jewish community and with that she had a strong faith.

Beatrice enjoyed the company of friends and family. Bea was dearly loved and will be missed by many. She passed away peacefully in Boca Raton surrounded by love.
