Val, Steph and family, Tamir and I were so sorry to hear of your father's passing. You both were such loving and supportive, daughters, and it was clear to me from when I first became friends with Val, that your dad was an intelligent, affectionate, and giving man. It is hard to feel like an orphan in middle-age. I got through it by reminding myself how lucky I was to have been raised by my dad. I hope that you all find a similar way to find comfort during this so very difficult time. Love, Molly and Tamir
