Parwidi Goundasammy

DEC 18, 1947 - OCT 17, 2024

Parwidi Goundasammy (1947-2024)

Parwidi Goundasammy, beloved mother to two children, 77, of Tamarac, Florida, passed away on October 17, leaving a void her family cannot fill.

She was born in Letter Kenny, Guyana, 1947, to Chinbai Gopaulsammy and Sundramah Naidoo. Parwidi attended Royal Alexandria Hospital School in Flintshire, Wales, United Kingdom, and studied Nursing and Midwifery in Berkshire, United Kingdom. She worked as a midwife at Basildon Hospital in Basildon, Essex, England, United Kingdom. She also worked as a midwife in Canada at the Grace Hospital in Calgary, Alberta, and Houston, Texas. After moving to the United States with her husband Basil and daughters, she worked in labor and delivery at West Boca Medical Center for twenty-five years. She retired after her last granddaughter was born 12 years ago.

Parwidi was a devoted mother to Natalie and Andrea, with whom she spent all her later years. She always provided them with the love and support they needed.

Parwidi was especially happy with her grandchildren, Luc, London, and Asha. She doted on them since birth and showered them with love constantly.

Parwidi was preceded in death by Mahaindra, Dharmendra, and Jeetindra Ramsaran, and is survived by her daughters Andrea and Natalie, Basil, her sister Mary, and her brother Dennis, who will never forget the love she brought to their lives.

Celebration of Life is November 3rd at Alexander Leavitt Funeral Home.

Parwidi is my cousin but in life she was more than that to me. She was my mentor, best friend and a sister. Parwidi was the kindest person everyone would have loved to have had in their life, as she was a very loving, kind, respectful, compassionate, humble, and caring person. I am very lucky to have had her in my life, and I will forever treasure the memories we shared. May her soul rest in peace.

Sheila- you will always be remembered as a special lady who endured a lot during your lifetime but always came through shining and with a positive attitude! You were an amazing and passionate nurse to me for the birth of my baby boy and a special colleague and friend who always made the day brighter ! Rest in peace dear friend !

Parwidi fondly called sister Sheila by me will be greatly missed but her memory will live on. Since the day I was told by my dad that she was my sister we were bonded. She had the most genuine heart and a contagious smile. and always reminded me how much she loved me regardless that we didn't grew up in the same home. I will miss her wise and encouraging conversations. that will forever linger in my heart

Sheila was one of the nurses who took me under her wings at WBMC back in those days. She encouraged me to be strong and hang in there. I would sing two Caribbean songs for her before I got off duty in the mornings. Sheila and Brown Gal you sweet like a sugar, Sheila you nice like a money etc. She would crack up with laughter and asked me to sing them again. She was a lovely, sincere, caring and compassionate nurse and friend.. May her sweet soul RIP and light perpetual shine upon her. Zandra
