Leonard Nathan Wilensky

APR 26, 1931 - JUN 14, 2025

Leonard Nathan Wilensky (1931-2025), passed away peacefully surrounded by the love from his children, Stuart & Julie, son in law David, and his three grandchildren Brooke, Troy & Andrew.

Leonard was born in Malden, MA from Russian immigrants Jacob & Esther Wilensky. As a teenager, Leonard played baseball for Malden High School where he was nicknamed "Snake" for his killer curveball. He later joined the Air Force, serving during the Korean War. After his service, Leonard graduated from Bentley College and Boston University with an MBA in Finance.

Finally, after years of searching and searching, at the ripe old age of 39 years old, he met the love of his life, Phyllis. They raised their family in Framingham, MA and eventually made the journey down to Florida. And now are reunited again, together for eternity. For this we are grateful.

When I was assigned to Lenny to be his physical therapist at the rehab we developed an immediate connection. I asked the usual questions trying to get to know my patient. To my surprise I found out not only that we were both originally from the Boston area but that he and my mother were childhood playmates in Malden as they lived across the street from each other. Later we reunited them on a visit and they reminisced about the old neighborhood. Lenny, will be remembered by me and all who knew him for his gentle strength, love of his family, his wonderful smile and his kind heart. I miss you Willy ❤️

I used to visit Leonard (Willy) every Friday night, as Julie would always be there. Willy always greeted me with a smile and a firm handshake-up until the end. I have fond memories chomping on pizza with Willy and Julie, while Willie shared stories of his participation in the Air Force, his time as part of the Deadly 9 gang, and much much more. I am a better person because I knew Leonard.
