Paul Brakebill posted:

Bob and I met in Chinle, Az in 1960 where we were both stationed with the US Public Health Service; he as a pharmacist and I as a dentist. My wife, Jane, and I quickly became close friends with Bob and Rosalee. At first we had difficulty understanding them because we are from Tennessee and they had the Boston accent. Bob and I communicated via texts very often especially about college football, basketball, and baseball. We frequently met him and Rosalee for lunch when we made our annual vacation trips to Daytona. They are two of our very best friends and I love Bob like a brother. I will miss texting and phone calls with him so much. Paul Brakebill
