Milton Andrade

SEP 25, 1950 - APR 6, 2026

Milton Rafael Andrade Ramirez, 75, passed away on April 6, 2026, in Tamarac, Florida.

Born on September 25, 1950, in Guayaquil, Ecuador, Milton lived a life defined by hard work, dedication, and an unwavering commitment to his family. As an immigrant to the United States, he built his life from the ground up—creating opportunities not only for himself, but for his entire family. Through sacrifice, resilience, and determination, he laid a foundation that lifted those around him and shaped generations to come.

He was a devoted husband, a proud father, and a man who carried the responsibility of providing for those he loved with strength and consistency.

Milton was married to his beloved wife, Angela Maria Andrade Cardenas, with whom he built a life centered around family and resilience. Together, they raised a beautiful and close-knit family that stands today as part of his lasting legacy.

He is survived by his children: Jessica Hernandez and her husband Frank Hernandez; Veronica Andrade and her spouse Aaron Brinsko; Milton Andrade Jr. and his spouse Julio Rodriguez; Paola Siegel and her husband Seth Siegel; and Gabriela Gauthier and her husband Sean Gauthier. He is also survived by his cherished grandchildren: Alexis, Sabrina, Tanner, Hayli, Hudson, Marcus, Logan, and Luke, each of whom brought him immense pride and joy.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Gloria Saavedra, and his granddaughter, Daniela Hernandez, with whom he is now reunited in eternal peace, watching over their family together.

Milton is also survived by his siblings Roberto, Elsy, Antonio, and Cesar, who, along with extended family and friends, will remember him deeply.

Obituary

Milton Andrade

SEP 25, 1950 - APR 6, 2026

In his early years, Milton pursued his passion for the arts as a singer and actor under the name Milton Rey, captivating audiences with his presence and talent. He carried that same charisma throughout his life—known for his strong and enchanting personality, he was often the life of the party, always ready to sing, dance, and bring people together.

Later, he built a successful career as a real estate broker and eventually as a mortgage banker. His work ethic was unwavering, and his purpose was always clear: to provide, to build, and to create a better future for his family.

Milton found joy in life's simple pleasures—playing golf, watching soccer, and spending time surrounded by family. Above all, he valued his role within his family, which remained the center of his world.

His life is a testament to commitment, love, and perseverance. He will be remembered not only for what he accomplished, but for how deeply he cared for those around him and the legacy he built through them.

A service will be held at Alexander Levitt Funeral Home in Tamarac, Florida on Saturday from 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM. The family will receive visitors from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM. Cremation arrangements have been made.

Milton's legacy lives on through the family he built, the opportunities he created, and the lives he forever changed.

Everything we are is because of him.
